

Troop 5384: Eighth Enrichment Meeting for 2010-2011

Working on WAGGGS World Thinking Day 2011 Patch

6:45pm – 7:00pm Pre-Meeting/Snack

Zimbabwe Crafts: In Zimbabwe, wire and beads are used to create two and three dimensional structures. We will create our own version of this art form.

7:00 – 7:15pm Daisy Circle and Troop Business

The things we have not yet finished preparing for our table at the World Thinking Day Fair are:

- Craft or Food samples from Zimbabwe

Today we are creating craft samples and finishing up our Zimbabwe flag. This is our last meeting before the World Thinking Day Fair!

7:15 – 7:25pm Break/Physical Activity

End Violence against girls, Let it out: Sometimes violence happens because of pent-up feelings. It's good to release that anger! Bring in soft pillows, and have an anger release session. Jump on them, or use them as punch-bags. Ask everyone to scream as loudly as they can - or try a more relaxed approach and do some mediation.

7:25pm – 7:55pm Main Activity

Poster against Violence: Together we will design a poster saying No to violence against women and girls. Display your poster somewhere that lots of people will see it.

1:55pm – 2:00pm Closing Activity

Friendship Squeeze

Troop 5384: Eighth Enrichment Meeting Make-up Activities (to be completed at home)

The purpose of the eighth enrichment meeting is to complete the preparations for the World Thinking Day event and to finish the WAGGGS World Thinking Day patch program by exploring ways to end violence against women.

Zimbabwe Bead Craft: Please see the Troop Leader for a kit for doing this craft.

End Violence against girls, Let it out: Sometimes violence happens because of pent-up feelings. It's good to release that anger! Using soft pillows, have an anger release session. Jump on them, or use them as punch-bags. If appropriate, include siblings and ask everyone to scream as loudly as they can.

Poster against Violence: Using a 8.5 by 11 inch sheet of paper, design a poster saying No to violence against women and girls. You and your Daisy can work together (e.g., you can do the writing and she can do the illustration).

Please bring your completed craft and poster to the Troop Leader to receive credit for the meeting. She will return them!
